

A collage of seven black silhouettes on an orange background, representing various aspects of film production. The silhouettes are arranged in a grid-like fashion. In the top left, there is a stack of books. In the top center, a movie camera on a tripod with two reels. In the top right, a magnifying glass. In the bottom left, a person holding a megaphone. In the bottom center, a person holding a microphone. In the bottom right, a car. In the far right, a lioness.

- the best movie, TV show or performance you have seen or

- Write to persuade a reader that they should see or read what you have chosen to write about.

- An introduction lets a reader know what you are going to write about.

- Give reasons for your opinion. Explain your reasons.

- A conclusion sums up your reasons so that a reader is convinced of your opinion.

- plan your writing

- use paragraphs to organise your ideas
- write in sentences
- choose your words carefully to convince a reader of your opinion
- pay attention to your spelling and punctuation
- check and edit your writing so it is clear.